2021 to now

Kailo Northern Devon in numbers

200+
young people listened to in Early Discovery

101
professionals shared their views in Early Discovery

45
organisations involved in Early Discovery

3
opportunity areas prioritised by the community

22
young people co-designing in Small Circles

2
community researchers employed

144
survey responses widening the co-design

1,400+
pupils in 9 schools took part in #BeeWell

5
Local community partners involved in supporting delivery of co-design sessions and outputs

6
peer-reviewed papers drawing on Kailo in Northern Devon

1
BBC Radio 4 documentary featuring Kailo in Devon

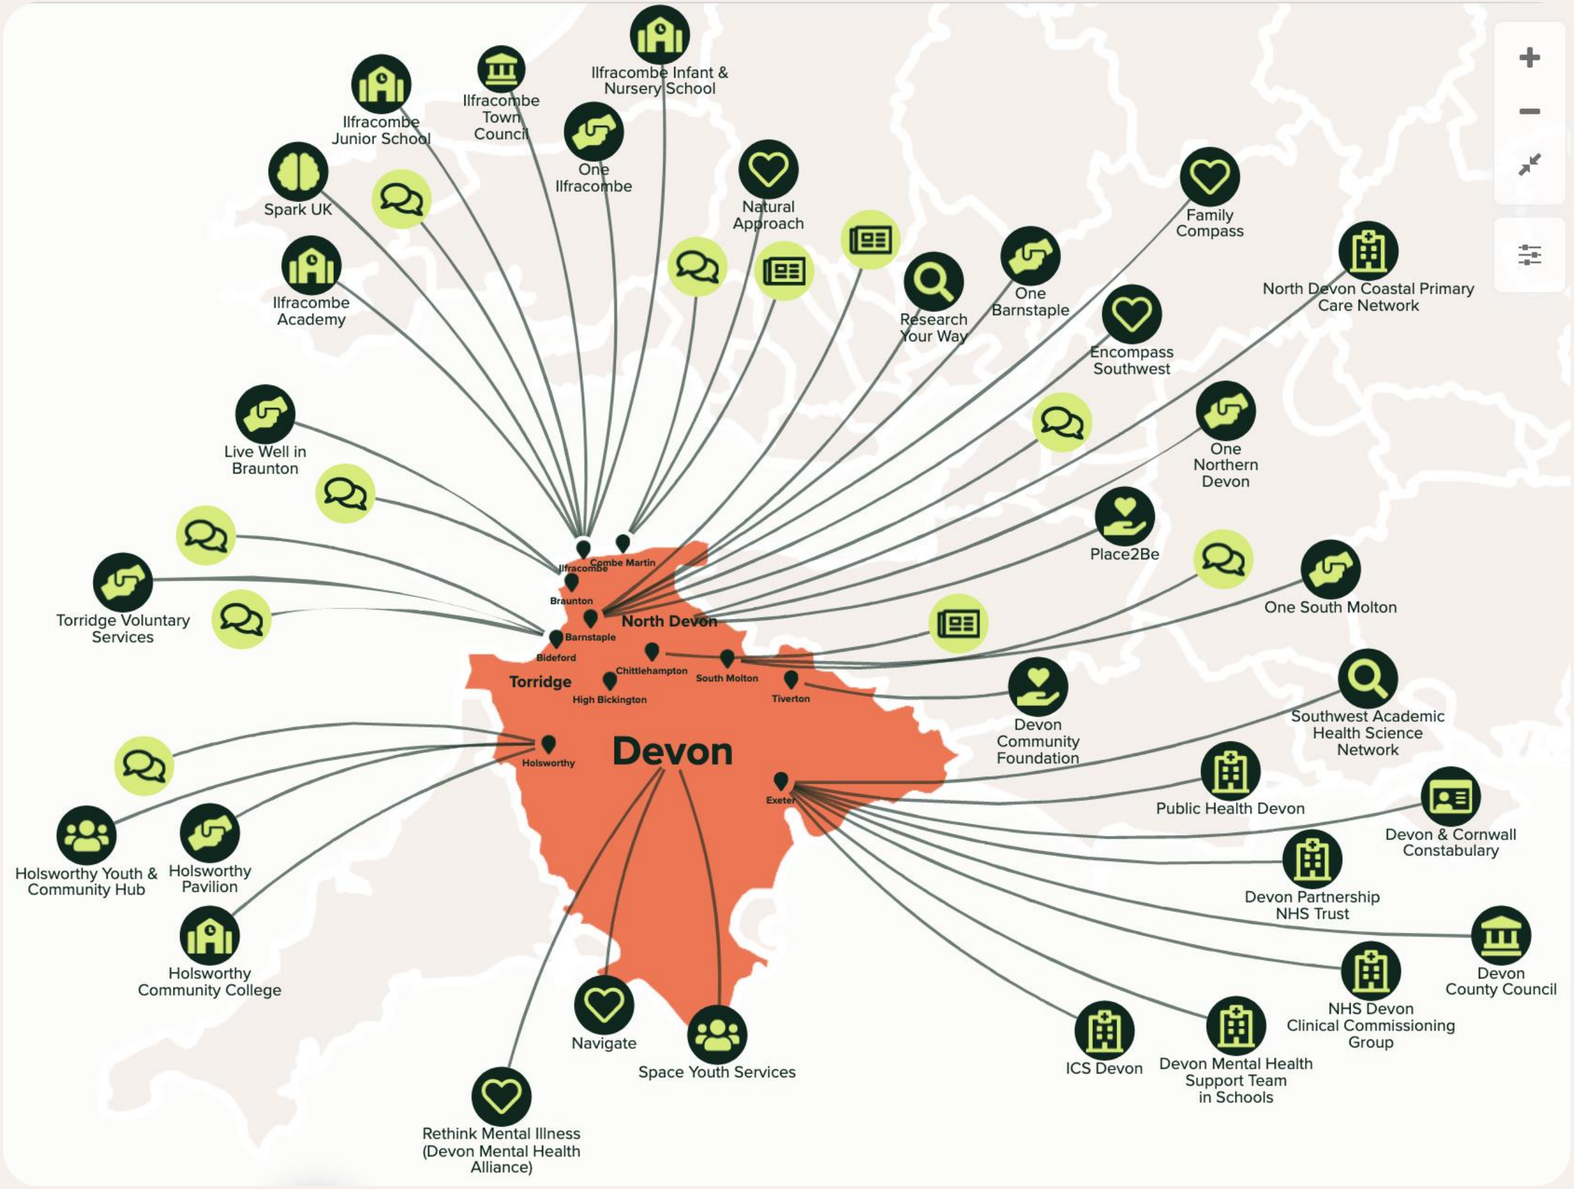

48
community professionals and system leaders in the Big Circle

Early Discovery

Where we listened

Across North Devon and Torridge, from coastal towns to rural villages, and with partners based across the county.

- Barnstaple
- Bideford
- Ilfracombe
- Braunton
- Combe Martin
- Holsworthy
- South Molton
- Chittlehampton
- High Bickington

Early Discovery: professionals

Who we listened to 101

professionals from across Northern Devon

They came from 45 organisations and shared what matters for young people’s mental health and wellbeing.

Professionals by type of organisation

Statutory services and authorities
Health services and commissioners, schools and colleges, local and town councils, policing

47 from 17 orgs

Youth organisations
Specialist support services, youth centres and community hubs, youth and family charities

25 from 11 orgs

Community organisations
Local charities, including mental health and diversity organisations

19 from 13 orgs

Funders
Research and community funders

8 from 2 orgs

Independent practitioners
Public health consultants

2 from 2 orgs

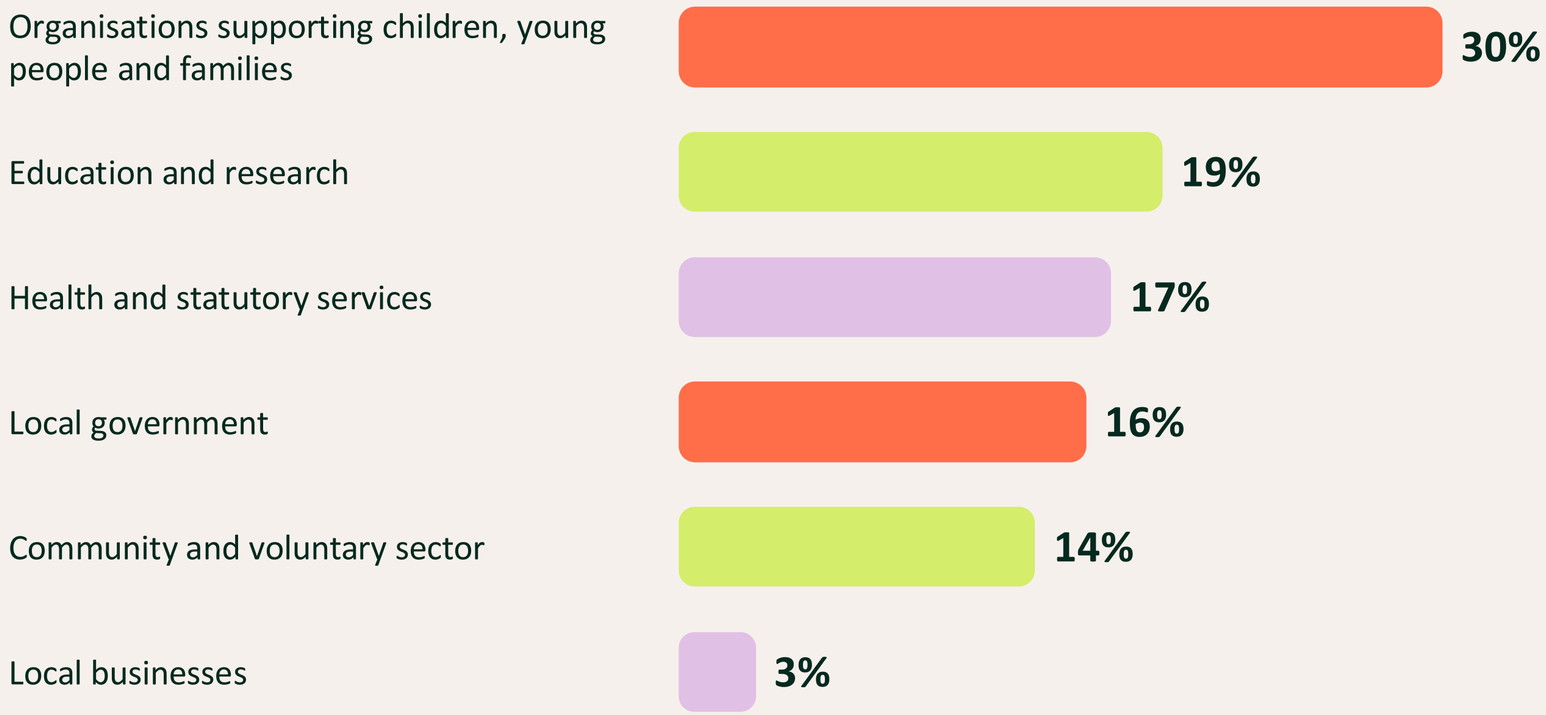

Who was around the table

48

community professionals and system leaders from Northern Devon

They regularly took part in Kailo events, advising, connecting and mobilising resources for what was designed.

Sectors they came from Sector shares are for all 57 Big Circle members across Northern Devon and Newham.

The young people who took part

Early Discovery

200+

young people across Northern Devon

We met young people in youth clubs, schools and community spaces, and on the street in towns and villages. We made a point of seeking out the young people who are least often heard, including:

Deeper Discovery

22

young people aged 12 to 25 in the Small Circles

Two groups, in Barnstaple and Bideford, co-designed together over a series of sessions. They brought a wide mix of backgrounds and experiences, including: